

The Full Moon Grid

The Moon embodies the energies of the Light Goddess, or the active, nurturing principles of the Divine Feminine. It reflects fully the light of the sun and brings into focus such themes as the family, early childhood, relationships with nurturing parents, domestic life, and the subconscious and the unconscious. The Moon has long been associated with life changes, the emotional body, the ocean, dreams, meditation, and enhanced vision. The Moon rules the zodiac sign Cancer and is associated with the Fourth House in astrology.

The intentions of this grid is to assist in the harmony and balance of the emotional body and to provide nurturing support to all of the areas through which the moon has sway. It can be used to charge ceremonial tools as well as to be included in any work in which full moon energies are particularly useful.

Stones Included:

Center: 1 Girasol Quartz

Girasol is a clear, milky white, or extremely pale pink variety of quartz. The name comes from the Italian girasole, "turn towards the Sun". Its solar name, electric qualities as a form of quartz, and optical effect reveal that girasol can help the subtle body readjust after phenomena like solar flares. Girasol quartz is also connected to the element of water and the brightness of inner illumination. It provides a vehicle for moving into the mists of other realms and to strengthen our contact with the Beings of these realms for mutual help and understanding. It is a stone of innocence and faith, magic and fairies. It represents the crystal clear waters of our spirits, cleansed of the murkiness that has accumulated by lifetimes of human experiences.

Inner Lotus: 6 Celestite

Celestite is a celestial realm stone that helps to bring us greater access to that which is our Higher Selves. It facilitates deeper connection with our Angelic guides and helps us to remember the parts of ourselves that can be brought into service at this time.

Star: 6 Milky Quartz

All quartz amplifies and provides potency to any combination. It can hold a charge for long amounts of time and will flow with specific to general flavors of energy. It assists to raise the vibration of the energy field when used in healing work and can help focus attention and concentration. It assists with meditation and achieving altered states of consciousness.

Triangle: 6 Crystal Points

Quartz amplifies energies, thoughts, and intentions. It strengthens and clarifies the auric field and can be used to direct energy like a laser beam, if used with intention. When used in crystalline grids, a set of points expands the energy field of a grid, or serves as a medium through which healing energy is directed to distant subjects.

Dot: 6 Amethyst

Amethyst is the stone of high spirituality, peace, and tranquility. It stimulates the Crown Chakra and helps to connect to ones Higher Self. It also has protective qualities and smooths the way to a gentle meditative state. It was once thought to discourage intoxication by drink and was carried around to ward off the evil eye. The double “diamond” and multi-terminated qualities of these special amethyst crystals from Madagascar assists in greatly directing the energies where they are most needed and enhances distance energy work or prayer work. The celestial qualities links this amethyst energy to the celestial, angelic, and Divine realms.

Open Circle: 6 Aquamarine

Aquamarine is a watery wonder. It floats us gently to a still and peaceful place within and assists us to merge with the fluid connection of ALL. The energies facilitate states of meditation and moves us closer to the vibrations we need to feel and communicate with higher levels of consciousness.

Square: 6 Rough Moonstone

Moonstone is all about mother love and is often used to assist new mothers through pregnancy and childbirth. It has its pulse on the very energies that wrap us up in a comforter and attend to us when we scrape our knees or hearts. It is also the embodiment of the mystery of the night and the magic of womanhood. It helps us to connect with the Divine Feminine, our own inner Goddess Power, as well as connecting us to meditative, introspective, and periods of “going within”. Moonstone has also traditionally been used to provide safety during travel, particularly over water.

Solid Circle: 6 Rose Quartz

Rose Quartz has long been considered a stone that illuminates the heart, soothes a restless spirit, and nurtures the soul. It is said to help us embrace love in all its many forms, such as maternal, brotherly or humanitarian, as well as passionate. It is connected directly with the heart and emotional body and assists in gentle shifts toward more loving states, such as forgiveness, nurturing, comfort, and bonding. It is often associated with nurturing and compassionate aspects of the Divine Feminine, and specifically with Mother Mary.

Outside Flanking: 12 Himalayan Salt

Himalayan Salt provides for extreme cleansing of any other energy. It also seems to help reset a system that has been brought greatly out of alignment from it's primary template. It brings grounding, stabilization, balance, and alignment to the system by holding the vibrational patterns of purity at the physical level.

Recommended Protocol:

This is a good working grid for any lunar specific ceremony, to harmonize a challenging lunar position, or to tap into full moon energies even when the actual moon is not full. It may be helpful in “charging” other tools, such as you might during a full moon. It can be used in conjunction with the Solar Grid to do Divine Masculine/Feminine balancing work. The Full Moon Grid may also be used in ceremony that honors the ocean or marine animals.
