

Divine Connections Grid

This grid has several layers of assistance. The first layer is a kind of gentle “flush” of the system that helps to remove energetic blockages or congestion that may hamper spiritual communication. This prepares you for "Divine" interaction, whether it is with your angels, spiritual guides, crossed over loved ones, or higher aspects of your own self. The second layer is that it helps to provide for safe and supported spiritual exchange, such that you are connecting with spiritual beings that are working within Divine Will. The third layer deals with the infusion of spiritual wisdom, so that you are supported to be in alignment with your highest path of service and your highest joy.
